09 August 2017

To whom it may concern:

Faculty Position Announcement

The Graduate School of Humanities, Nagoya University, Japan, invites applications for a position of associate professor in contemporary German history. We would appreciate it if you could circulate this announcement widely to the relevant individuals in your institution.

1. Position title:
Associate Professor (permanent contract)

2. Number of positions:
One position

3. Primary responsibilities:
(1) Research and education of contemporary German history (since WW Ⅰ).
(2) Teaching elementary German language (4.5 - 6 hours per week).
(3) Contribution to various research and educational projects of Nagoya University.
(4) Other administrative duties.

4. Qualifications:
(1) Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in contemporary German history.
(2) Applicants must be qualified and enthusiastic in both research of German history and education of German language.
(3) Advanced Japanese language proficiency is required for handling administrative matters, as well as English for teaching.

5. Starting Date:
1 April 2018

6. Treatment
All matters relating to employment by Nagoya University will be subject to the scheme on the Nagoya University Employee Work Rules.
See http://www.nagoya-u.ac.jp/extra/kisoku/act/frame/frame110000115.htm(Japanese only) for details.

7. Application documents (in Japanese or English):
(1) Curriculum vitae (with a passport-size identity photograph, email address, and a list of academic achievements included.)
(2) Copies of three key publications (Offprints and photocopies are acceptable. Mark these publications in the list of academic achievements.)
(3) Statement of your aspirations and intentions regarding the duties of this associate professor position (up to two A4 pages.)

8. Deadline for Applications:
Application entries must arrive by 29 September 2017.

9. Application documents should be sent, by registered mail, to:

Prof. Jun'ichi SAKUMA
Dean, the Graduate School of Humanities, Nagoya University
Furō-cho, Chikusa-ku, Nagoya, 464-8601, Japan
(Application documents must be sent in an envelope marked in red with "Application Documents for German History Position.")

10. Selection procedure:

(1) First screening: Short-listing based on application documents.
(2) Second screening: Interview with successful applicants of first screening. A short demonstration lecture may also be requested. An applicant will be interviewed at Nagoya University. (Please note that the Graduate School of Humanities cannot bear the travel costs for interviews.)

11. Please note:

(1) Further submission of copies of publications may be requested during the screening process.
(2) We will use the application documents and personal information given for the purpose of this screening only.
(3) For further information and inquiries, please contact by facsimile (+81-52-789-2666):

General Affairs Section of the Graduate School of Humanities
Administration Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Nagoya University
Furō-cho, Chikusa-ku, Nagoya, 464-8601, Japan
※Please mark with "Inquiries about German History Position".

12. Other:

Nagoya University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Applications from female researchers are strongly encouraged. Further information can be found at:
http://www.nagoya-u.ac.jp/about-nu/declaration/positive

Sincerely,

Prof. Jun'ichi SAKUMA
Dean, the Graduate School of Humanities
Nagoya University